All the world pow - ers are mixed up in war — Half the men fight - Mill - ions of dol - lars and mill - ions of men — Crown'd heads are call -

- ing don't know what it's for — Nations claim Na - tions an
 - ing a - gain and a - gain — Soldiers are mak - ing a old foe Why they're foes we'd all like to know brave stand In de-fence of their na-tive land

It seems so strange that they can't ar-bi-trate — Lives are too pre-
We'd like to see all the rul-ers a-gree — For we have friends

- cious to trust to the fates — We should be so — fight-ing o-ver the sea — We can do just thank ful that we're liv-ing here in the States.

one thing not for-get our neu-tral-i-ty.

CHORUS

We love our na - tive land, —

We love the Fa - ther - land, —

And we love old Eng - land, Rus - sia and France; —

As for the oth - ers, Why, we'll take a chance —

If they're a mind to fight — for what they think is right — Guess we'll have to let them It's their af-fair — Let's be neu-tral

here at home. home.

CHORUS

It won't be long till sun - ny June, For time will fly in lov - - ing; It won't be long un - til we'll be on our hon - ey - moon, We'll make the moons all hon - ey

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of a vocal melody line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady bass line with chords in the right hand. Dynamics include piano (p.) and mezzo-forte (mf). The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment.
